You and You Alone

By: Upperroom

I choose this day to be grateful Lord
I give You praise with an open heart
I'm waking up to heaven, I'm waking up to You
I'm waking up to heaven, I'm waking up to You
I choose this day to be grateful Lord
I give You praise with an open heart
I'm waking up to heaven, I'm waking up to You
I'm waking up to heaven, I'm waking up to You

For always being good, thank You
For Your mercies that are new, thank You
In spirit and in truth, thank You
I'm telling You thank You

Your faithfulness like the sunrise
Your endless love reaches past the skies
I'm waking up to heaven, oh, I'm waking up to You
I'm waking up to heaven, oh, I'm waking up to You

For always being good, thank You
For Your mercies they are new, thank You
In spirit and in truth, thank You
I'm telling You thank You
Oh, and for always being good, thank You
Your mercies that are new, thank You
In spirit and in truth, thank You
I'm telling You thank You

The Way

By: New Horizon

Chorus

I believe You are the Way the Truth, the Life

Verse 1

I believe through every battle through every heartbreak through every circumstance
I believe You are my fortress
You are my portion
You are my hiding place

Verse 2

I believe through every blessing through every promise through every breathe I take
I believe You are provider
You are protector
You are the One I love

Bridge 1

It's a new horizon and I'm set on You and You meet me here today with mercies that are new
All my fears and doubts they can all come too
Because they can't stay long when I'm here with You

See a Victory

By: Elevation Worship

The weapon may be formed, but it won't prosper
When the darkness falls, it won't prevail
'Cause the God I serve knows only how to triumph
My God will never fail
Oh, my God will never fail

I'm gonna see a victory
I'm gonna see a victory
For the battle belongs to You, Lord
I'm gonna see a victory
I'm gonna see a victory
For the battle belongs to You, Lord (oh yeah)

There's power in the mighty name of Jesus
Every war He wages He will win
I'm not backing down from any giant
'Cause I know how this story ends
Yes, I know how this story ends

I'm gonna see a victory
I'm gonna see a victory
For the battle belongs to You, Lord
I'm gonna see a victory
I'm gonna see a victory
For the battle belongs to You, Lord
I'm gonna see a victory
I'm gonna see a victory
For the battle belongs to You, Lord

You take what the enemy meant for evil
And You turn it for good
You turn it for good

You take what the enemy meant for evil
And You turn it for good
You turn it for good

You take what the enemy meant for evil
And You turn it for good
You turn it for good

You take what the enemy meant for evil

You take what the enemy meant for evil
You turn it for good

You take what the enemy meant for evil
You turn it for good

The wicked have fallen, Lord

Jesus Messiah

By: Chris Tomlin

He became sin
Who knew no sin
That we might become His Righteousness
He humbled himself and carried the cross
Love so amazing
Love so amazing

Jesus Messiah
Name above all names
Blessed Redeemer
Emmanuel
The rescue for sinners
The ransom from Heaven
Jesus Messiah
Lord of all

His body the bread
His blood the wine
Broken and poured out all for love
The whole earth trembled
And the veil was torn
Love so amazing
Love so amazing, yeah

Jesus Messiah
Blessed Redeemer
Emmanuel

Today's Word

ACTS 16: 16-34, THE MESSAGE

¹⁶⁻¹⁸ One day, on our way to the place of prayer, a slave girl ran into us. She was a psychic and, with her fortunetelling, made a lot of money for the people who owned her. She started following Paul around, calling everyone's attention to us by yelling out, "These men are working for the Most High God. They're laying out the road of salvation for you!" She did this for a number of days until Paul, finally fed up with her, turned and commanded the spirit that possessed her, "Out! In the name of Jesus Christ, get out of her!" And it was gone, just like that.

¹⁹⁻²² When her owners saw that their lucrative little business was suddenly bankrupt, they went after Paul and Silas, roughed them up and dragged them into the market square. Then the police arrested them and pulled them into a court with the accusation, "These men are disturbing the peace—dangerous Jewish agitators subverting our Roman law and order." By this time the crowd had turned into a restless mob out for blood.

²²⁻²⁴ The judges went along with the mob, had Paul and Silas's clothes ripped off and ordered a public beating. After beating them black-and-blue, they threw them into jail, telling the jailkeeper to put them under heavy guard so there would be no chance of escape. He did just that—threw them into the maximum security cell in the jail and clamped leg irons on them.

²⁵⁻²⁶ Along about midnight, Paul and Silas were at prayer and singing a robust hymn to God. The other prisoners couldn't believe their ears. Then, without warning, a huge earthquake! The jailhouse tottered, every door flew open, all the prisoners were loose.

27-28 Startled from sleep, the jailer saw all the doors swinging loose on their hinges. Assuming that all the prisoners had escaped, he pulled out his sword and was about to do himself in, figuring he was as good as dead anyway, when Paul stopped him: "Don't do that! We're all still here! Nobody's run away!"

29-31 The jailer got a torch and ran inside. Badly shaken, he collapsed in front of Paul and Silas. He led them out of the jail and asked, "Sirs, what do I have to do to be saved, to really live?" They said, "Put your entire trust in the Master Jesus. Then you'll live as you were meant to live—and everyone in your house included!"

32-34 They went on to spell out in detail the story of the Master—the entire family got in on this part. They never did get to bed that night. The jailer made them feel at home, dressed their wounds, and then—he couldn't wait till morning!—was baptized, he and everyone in his family. There in his home, he had food set out for a festive meal. It was a night to remember: He and his entire family had put their trust in God; everyone in the house was in on the celebration.
